

Bousai Hitori Gatari presents "Just As An Ordinary Family", "Ground Zero", and "Fire Prevention Rakugo" Free

"Just As An Ordinary Family" (Performer: Kellie Holway)

Based on the notes written by the Tokyo Fire Department Rescue Team who were sent to disaster-stricken regions during the 1995 Great Hanshin earthquake.

"Ground Zero" (Performer: Kellie Holway)

Based on the notes written by pioneering female firefighter Brenda Berkman on the September 11 attacks that took place in New York City in the year 2001.

"Fire Prevention Rakugo" (Performer: Kawayanagi Tsukushi)

Based on the theme of the dangers of fire outbreaks in homes.

Performers: English narration by Kellie Holway (actor) and Kawayanagi Tsukushi (comic storyteller)
Cello by Miyao Yu and Nakamura Saho (performance within Ground Zero)

Date and Time: 18th May 2020 (Mon) 14:00-16:00 (venue opens at 13:30)

Venue: Kochi Prefectural Culture Hall (3rd Floor) - Multipurpose Room 5 (4-3-30 Honmachi, Kochi City)

Seat Availability: 60 participants (Free Seating)

Note: Outdoor shoes are not allowed. Please bring a pair of indoor shoes with you.

Advance reservations are required (please provide your name, phone no., and no. of participants)

For Inquires: Kato (Mr.) Tel: 090-3224-3611 Website: <https://www.bousaihitorikatari.jp/>

Kellie Holway

Kawayanagi Tsukushi

Miyao Yu

Nakamura Saho

Kellie Holway: Born and raised in Massachusetts, USA, she pursued a degree in Theatre Arts at Flagler College in Florida. In 2017 and 2018, she was a studio partner of "Business Communication in Simple English", an NHK radio program.

Supporters: Kochi City, Kochi University, Kochi International Association, and more